The Week of Prayer.

During the past week a large portion of the Christian world has been uniting in prayer. The worship of God has been more constant and fervent. In thousands of assemblies Christian principles have been proclaimed and assented to. It may be, without violence, supposed that the week concludes with Christians more firmly wedded to their belief, more in love with its beauties and convinced of its truth, than ever before. Certainly such should be the case, last week. The writer was wrong. Dr. after a week's continuous and concentrated attention, upon all previously accumulated experience. It would not be strange if the members of the churches should rise up, to save his life. The blunder was a serious from this yearly religious taking ac- one, but there was no intention of casting count of stock, exceedingly well satisfied. Nor would it be strange if this satisfaction should visibly manifest itself in the conversation and de meanor. And this satisfaction and the manifestation of it would be as proper as it would be natural.

But (there is almost always a but) many an outsider will be not a little has collapsed, and that Pidcock, Miles puzzled, as he compares the manifest- defeat him. Yet the fact remains that ed satisfaction of some Christians the Senator is to-day the most popular with the outward evidences, or rather man in the State with the masses of his lsck of evidences, of their spiritual party, and if he has the inclination and wealth. A man may be wealthy and spirit to assert this advantage he could clothe himself in rags, live in a shan- kill off that they have tried to lay aside ty, a cellar or a cave, furnish his for the gratification of their personal amtable with coarse food and little of it, bitions. Pidcock and Adrain are ansit in the dark and shiver in the cold; nounced as candidates. - Curbstone Obbut ordinarily it is not so. Temporal wealth and the evidences of it, as a Will Have to Send Their Money With rule, go together. The rich man is well clothed, well housed and well fed, and the wealth of him who has ufacturers announce that they will pronot its surroundings is well doubted. hibit all their employees from going to It is questionable if the spiritual the races during the coming spring seawealth is more often divorced from the evidences of it than the temporal,

What the Birds of the Air Say.

That one of the birds has seen the following missive accompanying a duster, sent as a Christmas present by a practical friend to a lady who questioned whether "life was worth living:"

Dearest: Dost desire delirious de-Dost deplore dissipations, dismal disappointments, dramas, dreary disenchantments, diversions, desuetude?

Dost denounce dudes, discursive discourse? Dost detect discordant disturbances democratically dominant? Dost despair delights desired, destiny a dreary discipline?

Discard difficult deliberative discussions; dismiss drowsy dormant dreams; dine discreetly; destroy disaffection; discontinue delicate dilettantelsm; discharge different duties diligently; disclaim deleterious dogmas; desist demanding domestics' doleful drugery; delightfully discourse of imitations, dilutions, and substitutes of Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines, offered at what pretend to be "cut prices." For the genuine, there's one price, and only one price—but, they're quarranteed. They're the cheapest medicines you can buy at any price, for if they fall to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

To prevent fraud and imposition by unprincipled dealers, these genuine guaranteed remedies are now sold only through druggists authorized as agents, and always at these long-established prices:

A Correction

An article in THE CITIZEN last week did an injustice to Dr. Charles H. Pailey. The statement was made that Dr. Bailey did nothing in the case of Robert McCloskey, who was fatally injured at the Print Works, Bailey did every thing that was possible to injured beyond hope of recovery, and it was not in the power of medical or surgical skill any reflection on Dr. Bulley.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF
CAROLINA BIANCHI DECEASED.
Julius Stapff, having applied to me by written petition, stating that Carolina Bianchi, late of the province of Leghorn, Italy, has died intestate, and that it is necessary to have letters of Administration of her estate granted in this State. I hereby order that all persons interested show cause before at the Surrogate's office of the County of Essex on the first day of February in the year 1892 at ten o'clock, in the forencoon, why letters of Administration of the estate of the said Carolina Bianchi should not be granted to the said Julius Stapff. This order is to be published in The Bloomfield in the County of Essex, four weeks, at least once a week preceding said day, and a copy thereof mailed to the heirs and next of kin of the said Carolina Bianchi, mentioned in said petition to their respective post office address if the same be known, postage presaid.

Music Free Each Month in 1892.

During the year 1892, the Crescent Dung Courts my will each mouth donain to its customers, free of charge, a new musical song confine ition, as fellows On January 9th -- TRE HURDY-GURDY MAN ; a topical song as applied to O. February 6th .- THE MERRY GO HOUND; a topical song enlogizing the Carou-el in Contral Park, New York City. This song is already very popular.

On March 5th. -THE OLD SPINNING WHEEL; a tuneful ballad with qual-tettee chorus. This song is of the same class as "Tu-Old Oaken Bucket and the "Old Arm Chair,", and will certainly be appreciated. On April 2d.—A very melodious and harmonious composition, set to the hymn JESUS LOVER OF MY SOUL. This song is arranged for baritone solo part; seprano solo part; sopra so and tenor duett parts and a refrain for mixed voiced quartette parts, together with plane accompaniment. As Easter Sunday falls in April, we think this song very oppropriate for April donation.

On May 7th .- DAINIY DOLLY VARDEN; a song of the serio-possic class The words are connical, and music categy. The song, as many of our customers will recognize, is now being sung on the stage, and is very popular. The chorus goes 'Annie Rooney's English. Annie Laurie's Scotch;

Maggie Murphy's Irish, and Margaret, she is Dutch; But my best girl's American, with just enough high tone, For sae's Dainty Dolly Varden, and she's all my own." On June 4th .- JACK AND JILL; a semi-nautical ballad, with a spirited chorus.

On July 21.—GRETCHEN; a meto-flous song of high class. On August 6th .- JUST FORTY YEARS AGO; a ballad of the old English tyle

On Sept. 3d.—THE OLD DARKEYS LAMENT; a very tuneful song of the 'Old Black Joe' class, and includes a lively jig dance. On October 1st -THE LITTLE HEBREW MAIDEN: a topical song as applied preaches a sermon and is a decided novelty.

On November 15th .- LITTLE DANNY MANN, THE DRUM MAJOR; a song The foregoing listed songs are original. The stanzas are by Nick Bachelor, and the music composed by C. I. Bolles. Special arrangements with the publisher, (whose price for each song at retail is not less than 40 cents), allows the Crescent Drug Company the sole right to donate these songs in the city of Newark. The songs will positively be given away [rain or shine] on dates mentioned, to each customer in our store purchasing goods to the value of five cents or more.

On December 3d, to every customer in our store who purchases goods to the value of 25 cents, we shall present [free of charge] a bound volume containing the eleven songs previously mentioned herein. The volume will be called Crescent Portfolio of Song Music, and will contain in addition to the eleven songs mentioned, six other songs donated by us to customers in the past, viz.

Daisy Duffy's Dog, Sweetheart, Slumber Song Two Little Graves in the Churchyard, Come, Kiss Mamma, Baby Darling, Papa's Birthday.

The Portfolio will contain in all seventeen songs, and will not be for sale. Containing not less than sixty pages of music, it will be the most novel, as well as the most elegant souvenir ever donated tolcus omers by any business firm in the State of New Jersey. Remember that a purchase of only 5 cents value will each most entitle you to copy of song donated in that month. On December 3d each customer will have to purchase goods to the value of 25 cents and upwards to freely a copy of the song portfolio. This rule of 25c purchase we are compelled to adopt to prevent wasteful distribution.

Customers in the past have asked for songs on other days except the Saturdays on which songs are donated: We desire to say positively that no songs will be donated except on the dates mentioned. Neither will we accept 5 cents in cash for a song. We frequently receive money by mail asking that a song be sent by mail in return. We therefore wish to say emphatically that we cannot sell the songs. We only give them away to quistomers in our store, and on the dates specified.

Finally, once more read carefully our generous offer, and make a memoranda of dates which, with the exception of January 9th, comprises the first Saturday of each
